FIND NOTHING

Mira found a mystery map.

FIND NOTHING, it said.

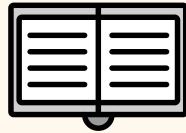

Pip flapped his wings. 'A treasure hunt!'

CHECK

A detective looks for clues.
Spot a clue.
Say what you notice.
Turn the page to check.

A clue is something you notice that helps you look again.

Mira is in her room.

Can you spot five things?

Look carefully. The next page will name the objects.

You found Mira's room!

Now follow each label to its object.

Can you find one more object than the labels name?

Mira opened the box.
No toy was inside.

Did she find nothing?

Look closely before you decide.

The toy was not inside.
But the box was here.
Looking was happening.

Empty inside is not the same as no thing shown.

CLUE STAR 1

EMPTY BOX

A container is something that can hold things, like this box.

EMPTY tells us what is missing from inside it.

The container can still be here.

Mira waited.
The bell did not ring.

What DID happen?

Cup your hand by your ear and listen with Mira.

CLUE 2 - REVEAL

MIRA LISTENING

LISTENING

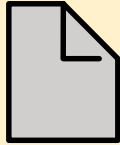

BELL STAYED STILL

PIP WAITING

No ring happened.
Mira listened.
Pip waited.
The bell stayed still.

Can you spot all three happenings in the picture?

Pip found a blank card.

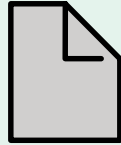

'Nothing!' he chirped.

What can YOU spot?

There are four clues before you turn the page.

CLUE 3 - REVEAL

BOOK CODE: BLANKEDGE

CARD

PIP'S FEATHER

MAGNIFYING GLASS

PENCIL

The card was here.
A pencil was here.
A feather and a magnifying glass were here.

Blank means no mark on the card. It does not make the card disappear.

CLUE 4 - HIDDEN WORD

A word is hiding in this busy picture.

Can you find NOTHING?

Look across the blocks from left to right.

CLUE 4 - REVEAL

N O T H I N G

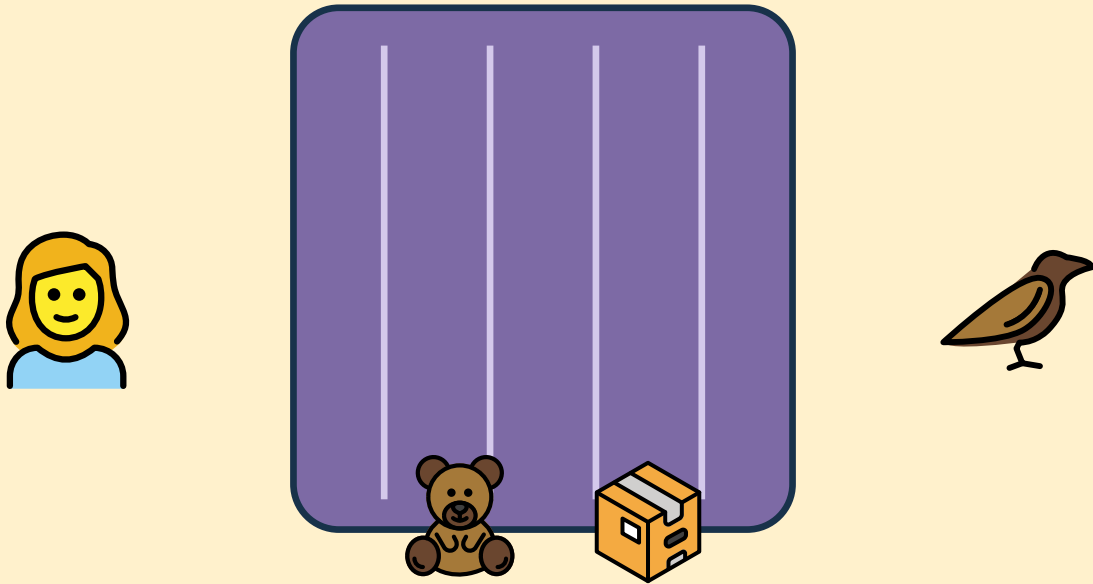

THE WORD NOTHING

You found the word NOTHING.

The word is something we can see and read.

A name does not turn into the thing it names.

Mira put the toys behind a curtain.
Part of each toy was hidden.

Did the room become nothing?

Spot what stayed in the picture.

CLUE 5 - REVEAL

Part of each toy was hidden.
The curtain was here.
Mira and Pip were still playing.

A view is what we can see from one place. Hidden from this view is not gone.

FIVE CLUE STARS

DOOR A

DOOR B

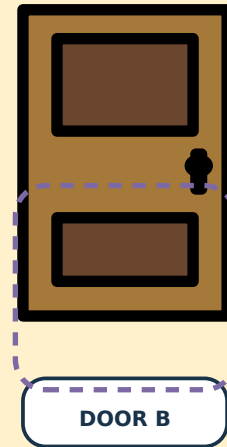

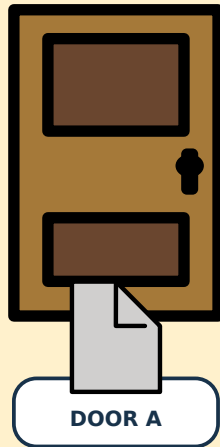

PIP

Five clue stars made the map POP open.

Two mystery doors appeared.

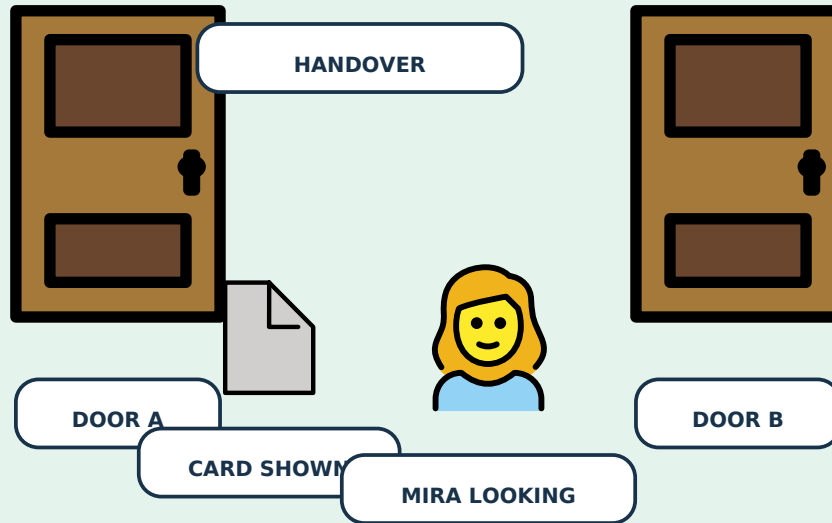

'One last level,' said Mira.

Door A holds out a card.
Door B holds out no card.

Which door gives Mira something to look at?

Something shown for us to look at is called an example.

Door A shows Mira the card.
Mira can look at it and point to it.

This card is an example.

An example is something shown for us to look at or check.

Door B has not shown Mira a card.
We have not seen an object from Door B yet.

We can say: no example was given. We do not invent one.

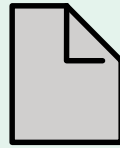

Can you draw nothing on a card?

Try—or choose not to draw.

Then turn the page. Both choices are allowed.

BLANK CARD HERE

Made a mark? The mark is here.
Made no mark? The card is still here.

Neither choice made nothing appear.

We could still point to the mark, the card or the choice.

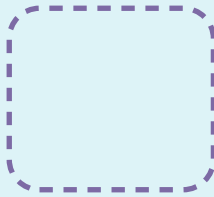

CARD SHOWN

SOMETHING TO LOOK AT

NOTHING SHOWN YET

KEEP BOTH PATHS

Show something—and we have something to look at.
If no object is shown, we have no object from that door to use.

That is what no example was given means.

DO NOT GUESS

Our game talks about what someone can show, say, draw or save in a note.

It does not guess about what no one has shown.

A careful detective says exactly what the game can check.

Find four clues: an empty box, a still bell, a blank card and a partly hidden toy.

For each clue, say what is here and what did not happen or appear.

EMPTY BOX

BLANK CARD

STILL BELL

CURTAIN

TOY PARTLY HIDDEN

Box here—no toy inside.
Bell here—no ring.
Card here—no mark.
Curtain here—toy partly hidden.

You kept each missing thing separate from the things still here.

SORT THE CARDS

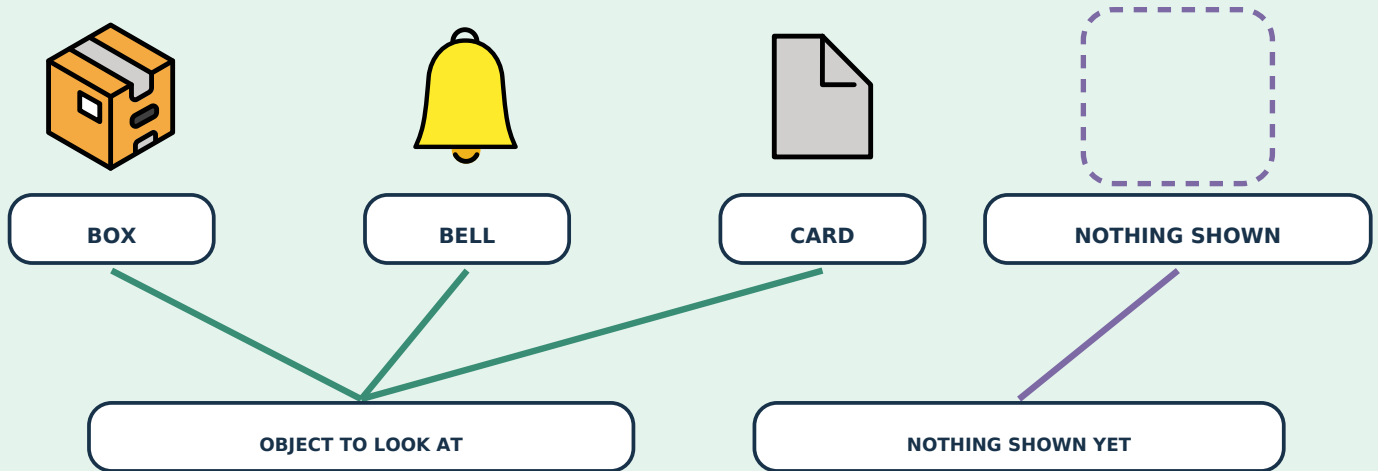

OBJECT TO LOOK AT

NOTHING SHOWN YET

Which pictures show an object you can look at?
Which empty frame means: no object was shown yet?

Move your finger from each picture or frame to a basket.

Box, bell and card: objects to look at.
Empty frame: no object was shown yet.

That is what NO EXAMPLE GIVEN means.
